SHARKEY MAY FIGHT MUNROE IN THE EAST.

Butte Club Will Have to Post Guarantee Soon or Lose the Bout,

Unless the officials of the Broadway
A. C., of Butte, Mont., make good feather-weight, in a six-round bout in their offer of a $10,000 purse for the contest between Jack Munroe, the Butte miner, and Tom Sharkey, in two Butte miner, and Tom Sharkey, in two days, the club will not get the match.

Bob Armstrong, the colored fighter, at the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia, two months ago, and for which the club officials refused to pay him the $700 due him, has asked for another chance to fight before the club. Matchmaker Kelly is at present trying to induce Marvin Hart, the Louisville fighter, to meet Gardner.

Carter to Fight Reilly.

"Kid" Carter, the South Brooklyn fighter, has at last been successful in getting on a match on the Coast. His opponent will be Tom Reilly, the midlle-weight champion of the Pacific Coast. They will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Pastime A. C., of Portland, Ore., on April 9. According to the articles, they will box at 163 pounds, weigh in at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the contest.

"Kid" McFadden, the California featherweight, was knocked out by "Young Mississippi," the colored fighter of Philadelphia, in the ninth round of what was to have been a ten-round of what was to have been a ten-round bout, before the Century A. C., of Los Angeles, Cal., last Friday night. Mc-Fadden is the third fighter "Young Missippi" has knocked out since he arrived in California. At the same show Hank Griffin, the colored heavy-weight, defeated "Solder Tom" Wilson, formerly Bob Fitzsimmons's sparring partner, in two rounds.

Maher to Meet Gardner.

The heavy-weight contest between Maher and George Gardner, which is scheduled to take place a Kenyon Hall, Allegheny, Pa., to-mor row night, will be the first heavy-weight contest held in that part of the coun-try in a number of years. The bout is scheduled to go ten rounds.

Hart Buys a Farm. Marvin Hart, of Louisville, has save the money he has won at fighting. A few days ago Heat heard that a six-acre farm located six miles from Louis-ville was for sale and bought it for $1.490. Hart says he intends to quit fighting in another year.

Gans Fights To-night.

Joe Gans, the colored boxer and lightweight champion, will fight again to-night. He is to meet Jack Bennett, the Summit Hill (Pa.) light-weight. They will try conclusions in a tenround bout before the Allegheny (Pa.) A. C. Gans will probably win in a few rounds.

"Corbett" Boxes a "Heavy."

"Young Corbett" evidently wants McGovern's hard rushes when he meets him. The Denverite has engaged a heavy-weight fighter to box with him from now until the day of the battle. The fighter be has secured is Moxey Kane, who defeated all the middle-weights in Manila. Kane arrived at Corbett's camp a few days ago and has been training and boxing with him ever since.

Tucker's Two Fights.

"Chick" Tucker, the hard-hitting feather-weight fighter of the Avonia A.

A., will be kept busy fighting this week, as he has been signed by his manager to meet two good men. To-night he will tackle "Kid" Decker, of Philadelphia in a six-round bout at the Washington Sporting Club, of Philadelphia, and on Friday night he will meet Tommy Love, another Quaker City feather-weight, before the Ariel A. C., of Philadelphia. Tucker was to have fought either Eddie Lenny or "Young Erne" on Monday, but both refused to take him on.

Duane's Next Bout. The next good bout in Boston will be decided on Tuesday night. Danny Du-ane, the lightweight boxer, will meet Jimmy Gardner, of Boston, in a twelve-round bout before the Criterion A. C roung bout perore the Oriterion A. C. It will be the second time they have fought. In their previous battle Duane outpointed and outfought Gardner. Dougherty to Meet Love.

A. on Park avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, on Aprile2. Thedaterest in the championship event is growing every day, and Manager Jo Oliver, of the club, is kept busy taking orders for tickets for it. It is many years since an internationally ight-weight championship has been held in this city, and that fact has caused additional interest to be centred in it.

August Faust says he will surely defeat Anders Andersson, the strong man from Sweden, when he meets him in their bout at Prospect Hall, Brooklyn, on April 7. The followers of Anderseon think otherwise, though, and if Faust's friends are willing to bet on the result they will have no trouble in being accommodated on the night of the contest.
